

Franklin FTSE Japan UCITS ETF

Class (Acc) • ISIN IE00D0T0BO1 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton ICAV
The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin FTSE Japan UCITS ETF (the “Fund”) investment objective is to provide exposure to medium and large capitalisation companies in Japan.

Investment Policy

The Fund invests in equities of companies of medium and large capitalisation in Japan that are included in the benchmark.

The Index is a broad free float market-capitalisation weighted index which captures large and mid-sized companies listed in Japan.

Derivatives and techniques The Fund may use derivatives for hedging and efficient portfolio management.

Strategy The investment manager seeks to minimise the difference between the Fund’s performance and that of the benchmark (tracking error), regardless of whether the benchmark level rises or falls.

SFDR category Article 6 (does not promote environmental and/or social characteristics or have a sustainable investment objective under EU regulations).

Base currency Japanese yen (JPY).

Benchmark(s) FTSE Japan Index NR.

The Fund is passively managed and seeks to replicate the benchmark by holding all of the benchmark securities in a similar proportion to their weighting in the benchmark. Its portfolio, and thus its performance, closely resemble that of the benchmark.

Buying and selling shares

You may buy or sell shares daily through a broker on the stock exchange where the shares are traded. Authorised participants, such as selected financial institutions, may buy or sell shares directly with the fund, on any day markets are open for business in the United Kingdom (provided that on such day the markets on which substantially all of the Fund’s investments are traded are open).

Intended retail investor

Investors who understand the risks of the Fund and plan to invest for at least 3 to 5 years. The Fund may appeal to investors who:

- are looking for long-term investment growth
- are interested in exposure to Japanese equity markets as part of a diversified portfolio
- have a high risk profile and can tolerate significant short-term changes in the share price

Product availability The Fund is available to all investors with at least basic investment knowledge, through a wide range of distribution channels, with or without the need for advice.

Terms to Understand derivatives: Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.

equities: Securities that represent partial ownership of a company.

efficient portfolio management: A strategy aimed at reducing risk, lowering costs or generating additional capital or income for the Fund through the use of derivatives. These strategies must align with the Funds risk profile.

Share Class Currency: JPY

Treatment of Income: For accumulation shares, income from investments is reinvested in the Fund and reflected in the price of shares.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund intends to track the performance of the Underlying Index which is comprised of Japan large and mid-cap equities. Such assets have historically been subject to price movements due to such factors as general stock market volatility, changes in the financial outlook or fluctuations in currency markets. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate significantly over relatively short time periods.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Index License Risk: To utilise an Index, the Fund may need to have a licence agreement signed with the Index Provider. If, at any time in respect of an Index, the licence granted terminates or disputed, impaired or ceases to exist, the Directors may be forced to replace the Index with another Index. Such a substitution or any delay in such a substitution may have an adverse impact on the Sub-Fund.

Index related risk: the risk that quantitative techniques used in creating the Index the Fund seeks to track do not generate the intended result, or that the portfolio of the Fund deviates from its Index composition or performance.

Index Tracking Risk: No financial instrument or set of investment techniques enables the returns of any Index to be reproduced or tracked exactly. Changes in the investments of any Sub-Fund and re-weightings of the relevant Index may give rise to various transaction costs, operating expenses or inefficiencies which may adversely impact a Sub-Fund’s tracking of an Index.

Passive Investment Risk: An Index Tracking Sub-Fund will be negatively affected by general declines in the securities and asset classes represented in its Index. Because Index Tracking Sub-Funds are not “actively” managed, Market disruptions and regulatory restrictions could have an adverse effect on an Index Tracking Sub-Fund’s ability to adjust its exposure to the required levels.

Foreign Exchange Hedging Risk: Hedging transactions are designed to reduce, as much as possible, the currency risk for investors. No intentional leveraging should result from currency hedging transactions. There is no guarantee that attempts to hedge currency risk will be successful and no hedging strategy can eliminate currency risk entirely. Should a hedging strategy be incomplete or unsuccessful, the value of that Sub-Fund’s assets and income can remain vulnerable to fluctuations in currency exchange rate movements.
